

Skye Bank Again!

- wins Bankers Games 2007

Skye* Bank has won back to back the Bankers Games after defeating Intercontinental Bank with a lone goal in a pulsating final match that recently took place at the Unilag Sports Complex . The goal was scored by Rotimi Saka during the second half of the match that was both entertaining and pressure-laden.

BankPHB defeated UBA by the same margin to emerge 2nd Runner Up in a competition that spanned nine weeks.

The final match was broadcast live on radio and television and it was witnessed by very large supporter clubs of both teams. The standard of officiating was quite high and players of both teams exhibited professionalism and great sense of sportsmanship

Mr. Tunde Lemo, Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Nigeria, was the Special Guest of Honour. Mr. John Obaro, MD/CEO SystemSpecs, also witnessed the historic event. The Managing Directors of Skye Bank (Akinsola Akinfemiwa) and Intercontinental Bank (Erastus Akingbola) were also present at the final match among other important dignitaries.
