

seek input from the community in the process of formulating and implementing policies that affect them.

However, identified are some of the factors that can ensure the success of e-Governance in Nigeria.

1. Priority development needs that require government involvement.

12. Monitoring and evaluation.

2. Efficiency and effectiveness as key success criteria of government involvement.

11. Partnerships.

3. Funding by Government.

10. Plans for development and human capital and technical infrastructure.

4. Skills and culture of the civil service.

Governance

9. Public engagement.

5. Co-ordination.

8. Political Leadership and long-term political.

6. Legal Framework.

7. ICT infrastructure.